Interview and Assessment

Interviews and selection are conducted by a panel of at least three people. The panel will include Directors from the Moa Arts Board of Management (a majority), the IACA Manager and an independent industry person.

The recruitment selection panel will consider an applicant's abilities in (at least) the following areas:-

- Personal integrity/self-management
- Relationship capability
- Potential to engage with and contribute to the organisation now and in the future
- Alignment with Moa Arts Centre values & workplace culture
- Qualifications/training & work history/experience
- Ability to meet the essential and desirable criteria

The most competitive applicants are called for an interview where the panel conducts a more detailed assessment.

If called for an interview, you will be asked questions related to the duties of the position and the advertised selection criteria. You may also be asked to tell the panel more about particular areas of your application. You will be able to ask questions about the position and provide the panel with more information to help your application.

If you are requested to attend an interview and you have any special needs (for example, wheelchair access to the building) you should tell the person who contacts you about the interview. Interviews may be conducted by telephone if travel distances make it difficult to arrange face-to-face interviews.

You should be available for an assessment from the advertised closing date. The recruitment selection panel will try to ensure that a minimum of two days' notice for an interview is given to short-listed applicants. Please note that if you are going to be absent from work and/or home at any time within one month following closure of the application period, please note this on your application and, if possible, provide alternative contact details.

The panel discusses which applicant best meets the selection criteria and writes a report which rates the strengths and weaknesses of each applicant. A recommendation is made to either offer the position to the best applicant or take further action (for example, re-advertise the position).

IACA applicant job package: Moa Arts Centre,

IACA gratefully acknowledges ORIC for its permission to adapt their Job Pack for IACA purposes.

Employment is subject to

- (a) The applicant being an Australian citizen or having the status of permanent resident in Australia.
- (b) The applicant providing proof of identity and any other necessary documentation.
- (c) A satisfactory Criminal Record check on the prospective applicant.
- (d) Confirmation that the prospective applicant is not disqualified from managing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander corporations in accordance with the Aboriginal (Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander) Act 2006 (CATSI Act).

Feedback

You will be advised in writing of the result of your application after the selection process is completed, normally within 3 weeks of interviews being conducted. If you are short-listed, you will be offered the opportunity to receive feedback on your assessment. All applicants will be advised regarding the success of their application at the completion of the process. If your application is successful a recruitment selection panel representative will contact you and offer the position to you.
